

Addendum B

Note: Report only activities for which you are not paid.

List 1: Committees and administrative roles at the Technion, which require a weekly activity:

At the Technion: such as the Senate Standing Committee for Tenure Track Appointments and Promotions, Senate preparatory committee, The Steering Committee.

At the faculty: such as deputy dean, head of undergraduate studies, head of graduate studies, head of faculty laboratory, head of research center.

List 2: Committees and administrative roles at the Technion which do not require weekly activities:

At the Technion: such as academic development committee, Technion research committee, standing committee for undergraduate and advanced studies, Technion library committee, patent committee, computer or computing committee, a judge in a panel of judges for staff and students, distinguished Professors committee, honorary degrees committee, academic staff organization committee, school for advanced studies' degrees committee, membership in BOG (board of governors) or in the board of directors, senate membership, senate standing committee for non tenure track appointments, a member of a panel of chairpersons of professional committees.

At the faculty: such as head of field or area, head of faculty library committee, undergraduate studies committee, graduate studies committee, staff-students committee, faculty preparatory committee.

List 3: Other committees and roles at the Technion

Ad-hoc committees or special roles (which are not included within the framework of running activities at the Technion or at the faculty).

List 4: Other committees and roles outside of the Technion

Active membership in an international or national committee, of a scientific, professional or educational nature.